Dear Parent

Year 12 Visit to Newcastle Lit and Phil Library for the 'Battle of the Brontës' lecture
Wednesday 28 November 2:00pm-3:00pm

I write to inform you of an exciting opportunity for Year 12 English literature students. As part of their A-Level English Literature studies – and, since Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre will be one of their core set texts – we feel that it will be a valuable opportunity for students to attend 'The Battle of the Brontës' lecture at Newcastle Lit and Phil Library. This will be led by academics from Durham and Brunel universities, whom are considered to be experts in their understanding of both Charlotte and Emily Brontë. The lecture is being held as part of a series in celebration of the 'Books on the Tyne: Newcastle Book Festival'. We have been given complimentary tickets – with the £3 entrance fee having been waived.

For further details on the lecture, please see: <http://www.booksontyne.co.uk/events/item/the-battle-of-the-brontes>

We will leave College at 1:30pm on the Wednesday afternoon and will return to school by 4:00pm. Students will wear College uniform.

I would be grateful if you would click here to give your consent to your son/daughter's attendance at the event and to read the College's behaviour contract. Could you please complete this by Friday 16 November 2018.

Yours sincerely

Mrs E McAloon
